AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 61, Section 290.502, Page 1, Lines 14 17, by deleting all of said Lines, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "3. If an employee receives health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section. 4. If an employee does not receive health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section increased by the prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	HOUSE	AMENDMENT NO
 17, by deleting all of said Lines, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "3. If an employee receives health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section. 4. If an employee does not receive health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section increased by the prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 	Offered By
 "3. If an employee receives health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section. 4. If an employee does not receive health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section increased by the prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 	AMEND House Committee Substitute	e for House Bill No. 61, Section 290.502, Page 1, Lines 14
4. If an employee does not receive health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section increased by the prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	17, by deleting all of said Lines, and i	nserting in lieu thereof the following:
4. If an employee does not receive health care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section increased by the prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	"3. If an employee receives he	ealth care benefits from an employer, the minimum wage wage shall be calculated as provided in subsections one and two of this section increased by the prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	shall be calculated as provided in subs	sections one and two of this section.
prevailing fringe benefits rate as defined in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	4. If an employee does not rec	ceive health care benefits from an employer, the minimum county."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	wage shall be calculated as provided i	in subsections one and two of this section increased by the Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	prevailing fringe benefits rate as defin	ned in the prevailing wage law of any city not within a county."; and
accordingly.	Further amend said bill by amending	the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
Action Taken Date 1		